SHOOTS WIFE OF MAN SHE LOVES

School Teacher Tries to Kill Herself
 by Sending Two Bullets Into Her Body to Prevent Arrest.

Waukesha, Wis., June 22.—Miss Grace Lusk, high school teacher, who yesterday shot and killed Mrs. Roberts, wife of Dr. David Roberts, former State veterinarian, and then tried to kill herself by sending two bullets into her body, probably will recover, physicians said today. Dr. Roberts, who arrived at the house after the shooting, asked Miss Lusk why she had killed his wife. "I did not intend to, but just lost my head when she said I couldn't have you," she replied.

To Dr. R. E. Davies and Chief of Police McKay, Miss Lusk said: "I am sorry for Mrs. Roberts. I hope my wounds are fatal. I never thought I could do it. I loved Dr. Roberts and want him now and always."

Mrs. Roberts went to the home of Miss Bianca Mills, where Miss Lusk lived, to keep an appointment with the latter. After reaching there she called her husband on the telephone and asked that he attend a conference between herself and Miss Lusk. When he reached the house he found his wife dead. Miss Lusk locked herself in a room and resisted arrest for an hour. When further resistance appeared useless, she shot herself twice.

A number of letters in Miss Lusk's room were taken possession of by District Attorney M. S. Tullar, who said that from some of these letters he was led to believe that Miss Lusk intended to commit suicide, but not murder. One letter was addressed to Mrs. Roberts and another to Rev. W. S. Wescott, of the Congregational church, requesting him to officiate at her funeral. Several weeks ago Mrs. Roberts is said to have appeared before the board of education and to have asked for Miss Lusk's dismissal, alleging she was not a proper person to be associated with the schools.

Obviously.

"We ought to have named that boy Flannel," remarked the father.

"Why should we have named him 'Flannel'?" asked the mother in surprise.

"Because he shrinks from washing."—New York Journal.

BOY SCOUTS BEGIN HARVESTING POTATOES

New York, June 22.—Eight hundred Boy Scouts have arrived on the eastern shore of Virginia to gather a 4,000,000 bushel potato crop, it was announced today. They will replace laborers who have been employed by munition factories.

The boys are housed in camps. Each scout will get 15 cents a barrel for all potatoes they gather with a minimum of $1.50 a day, to be paid at the end of the crusade. They are to receive 50 cents daily spending money.
